

THE SPORTING WORLD.

YALE AND PRINCETON'S GATE MONEY.

TALK ABOUT THE RECEIPTS OF THE BIG FOOT BALL GAME-ATHLETIC NOTES.

It will probably be a day or two yet before the Thanksgiving Day football game will be ready to make another effort to lower the mark for trotting stallions.

James Dustin, one of the best known and capable drivers on the trotting turf, is in the city, where he will remain until spring. He is being treated by a specialist.

NOTES ABOUT THE HORSES.

The horses which raced over the Board of Control tracks are sold for the winter, so that owners, trainers and jockeys have little to do at present. The meetings which have been tried at the different tracks are not very popular, as they are not attractive enough to draw the public. The racing season will begin again on December 1st, and the first meeting will be held at the New York Jockey Club on December 1st.

The horses which raced over the Board of Control tracks are sold for the winter, so that owners, trainers and jockeys have little to do at present. The meetings which have been tried at the different tracks are not very popular, as they are not attractive enough to draw the public. The racing season will begin again on December 1st, and the first meeting will be held at the New York Jockey Club on December 1st.